

Short trip ideas for after meetings and events

Beyond Tokyo

Ishikawa

Sapporo

Fukuoka

Nagoya

Okinawa

Kyoto

About Tokyo
<https://abouttokyo.jp/>

TokyoTokyo Old meets New

Welcome to Tokyo!

Tokyo, one of the world's largest cities, offers a uniquely eclectic mix of traditional and contemporary attractions. Please enjoy Tokyo and beyond during your stay for a conference, meeting or business.

Tokyo General Information

1. Facts

■ Climate and clothing

Average Monthly Temperature and Precipitation

Spring (March-May)

There may be days in March when you need a heavy jacket, but the cold eases considerably in April and by May it can be warm enough for short sleeves during the day. Peak cherry blossom season runs from late March through early April.

Summer (June-August)

The rainy season lasts from late June through around mid-July, with frequent rain and high humidity. After the rains, July and August usher in a steady stream of midsummer heat with temperatures over 30°C, including especially hot and humid days when the temperature rises above 35°C.

Autumn (September-November)

The temperature can rise over 30°C even in September, but both temperature and humidity begin to fall gradually. The peak season for viewing fall foliage starts in mid November. It is recommended to bring a heavy jacket when you come to Tokyo in November.

Winter (December-February)

Constant low temperatures make a jacket and coat indispensable, and it occasionally snows even in the city center.

Japan Meteorological Agency
<http://www.jma.go.jp/en/yoho/319.html>

■ Money, tipping

Currency

Japan uses yen (Japanese: 円, symbol: ¥, code: JPY). Coins come in 1, 5, 10, 50, 100, and 500-yen denominations while bills come in 1,000; 2,000; 5,000; and 10,000-yen denominations. As of September 2025, the exchange rate is approx. 145 -150 yen to the US dollar and approx. 170 -175 yen to the Euro.

Credit cards

International credit cards such as American Express, Visa, Diners Club, and MasterCard can be used at most banks, hotels, inns, and stores. Although not accepted at as many locations as these cards, China UnionPay can also be used. However, some stores do not accept any credit cards, so it is a good idea to have some cash on hand.

Cash advances (ATM)

Roughly 32,000 Japan Post Bank ATMs located throughout Japan, as well as over 26,000 Seven Bank ATMs installed in 7-Eleven convenience stores, offer cash advances for credit cards issued overseas. Most 7-Eleven convenience stores are open 24/7. Logos displayed on or near the ATMs indicate which credit cards can be used.

Tipping

It is not necessary to tip for service in Japan at places such as restaurants, bars, taxis, airports and hotels. However, hotels and some restaurants indicate an additional service charge on their bills or menus, respectively.

■ Cashless payment

In accordance with government policy, cashless transactions are promoted in large stores, restaurants, and shopping malls and can be used in many independent stores.

■ Free Wi-Fi

From cafés to train stations to airports, an increasing number of locations in Tokyo offer high-speed Internet connection via free Wi-Fi. Wi-Fi logos are displayed where services are available.

TOKYO FREE Wi-Fi

Free Wi-Fi Guide <http://www.wifi-tokyo.jp/>

■ Electricity

Voltage in Japan is 100 V, while frequency varies by location: 50 Hz in eastern Japan including Tokyo and 60Hz in western Japan. A 2-flat-pin type socket is used.

■ Smoking

In Tokyo, smoking is prohibited indoors at restaurants, drinking establishments, accommodations and other facilities used by many people, and only permitted in dedicated smoking rooms inside buildings (effective from April 2020). Smoking is also prohibited outdoors – on the streets and in parks in some areas of Tokyo. Please smoke in designated areas only.

■ Language

Japanese is the official language of Japan and English is widely spoken in Tokyo. Information desks at various facilities are often staffed with people who can speak English.

■ Visa

Japan has a visa waiver agreement with 71 countries and regions, under which delegates can enter the country for a short-term stay simply with their valid passport. (as of April 8, 2024)

For more information, please visit the website of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan:

https://www.mofa.go.jp/j_info/visit/visa/short/novisa.html

2. Getting There & Exploring the City

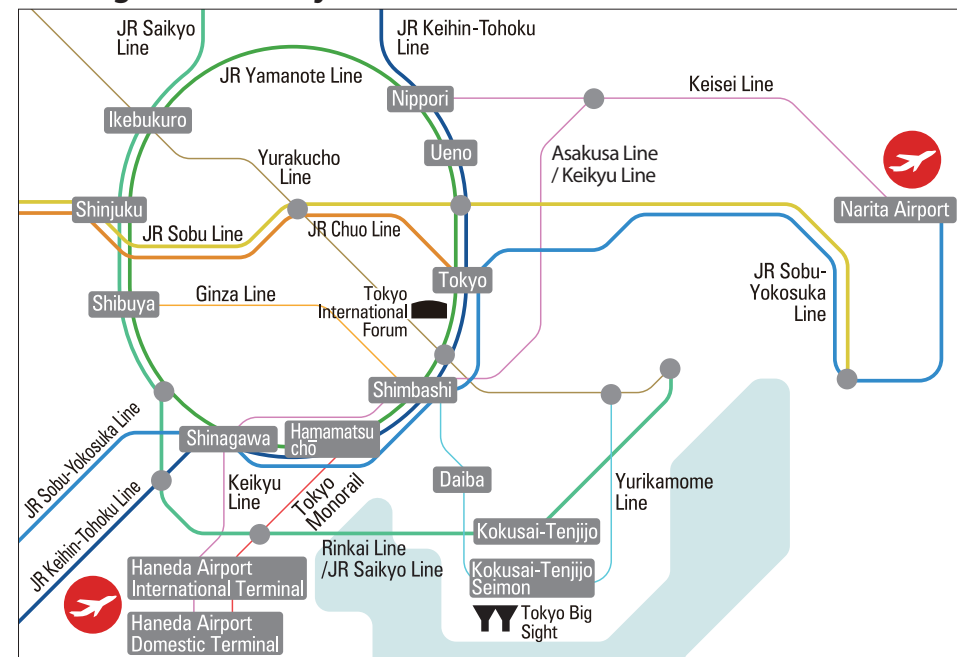

■ Transportation / Airport

A well-developed transportation network allows easy and convenient movement in and around the city, so you can come and go almost anywhere just by trains, subways or buses.

Average Time to Key Destinations from Airports

Getting around Tokyo

A network of train lines operated by JR East Japan and the subway lines of Tokyo Metro and Toei link stations around Tokyo. Symbols and signage at the stations are multilingual in English, Korean and Chinese. Train timetables are located on the platforms and are very reliable since trains in Tokyo run on time.

■ Suica and PASMO cards

Smart cards Suica and PASMO can be used on almost all rail and bus lines in the Tokyo metropolitan area, and are also accepted by a growing number of taxis. Suica IC cards are available for purchase at JR stations. Welcome Suica cards which require no deposit and expire in 28 days are also available. PASMO cards are available at subway, private railway stations or bus depots. You can also use these cards for shopping as electronic money at an increasing number of registered shops.

Suica

<https://www.jreast.co.jp/multi/en/pass/suica.html>

PASMO

<https://www.pasmo.co.jp/visitors/en/normalpasmo>

3. Shopping & Eating

■ Shopping

There are countless opportunities for you to shop for beautiful and innovative products including exquisite green teas, traditional sweets, attractive lacquerware, textiles, fashion and state-of-the-art electronic products Japan is famous for.

■ Eating

Washoku, or authentic Japanese cuisine, including globally popular sushi and tempura, has been designated by UNESCO as an Intangible Cultural Heritage. There are plenty of restaurants in Tokyo and the most Michelin stars in the world. The exquisite quality and variety of dishes, from washoku to world cuisine, make for an unforgettable experience. You can even try an Izakaya (local pub) for Japanese beer and yakitori (grilled chicken on a skewer) just as the locals do.

■ Taxis

In addition to queuing for a taxi at a taxi stand, you can also flag down an unoccupied taxi on the street by raising your hand. The taxi's rear left-side door will open for you automatically, so there is no need to open it for yourself. Fares are paid at the conclusion of the ride, but some taxis cannot accept smart cards or credit cards, so be sure to check before you get in.

■ Taxi fares

In Tokyo's 23 wards, Musashino city and Mitaka city, taxi fares have been raised to reflect improvements in working conditions and an increase in fuel costs. The starting fare is now 500 yen for the first 1.096km, beyond which 100 yen is charged for each additional 255 meters.

4. Things to Do & See

■ City Tour: Asakusa

This location is home to one of the most popular tourist spots in Tokyo, Tokyo Skytree Town®, which has the world's tallest free-standing broadcast tower. The area around the tower is complete with shopping and entertainment facilities. In contrast to the cutting-edge tourist attractions, atmospheric Sumida and Oshiage are crowded with people enjoying the sights of shitamachi areas, the traditional commercial and working class neighborhoods of Tokyo. Just across the Sumida-gawa river is the district of Asakusa, where you will find the Kaminari-mon gate with its huge red lantern, and the Senso-ji Temple, both landmarks from the old days. Have a pleasurable experience shopping at the shopping streets including Nakamise, visiting sightseeing spots in a rickshaw, or enjoying the cherry blossoms during spring and fireworks in the summer.

■ City Tour: River Cruise

Tokyo offers a diversity of cruise types, from regular services convenient for sightseeing and traveling, to one-off services paired with seasonal events, and even yakatabune services featuring meals and shows. Select the ideal cruise to enjoy according to purpose or situation.

■ Cultural Program: Dress in Kimono/Yukata

Kimono, the beautiful national costume of Japan also called wafuku, literally meaning "Japanese-style clothing," has won popularity beyond its birthplace. The garment is made with various materials, such as cotton and silk, and in different styles for different purposes, from formal to casual. Few people dress in kimono on a daily basis today, but the gown remains essential to traditional Japanese culture and is worn on special occasions like weddings and New Year celebrations. Yukata is a variant of the kimono made with a lighter fabric. The stylish gown comes in diverse colors, patterns, and materials. And compared to the kimono, it's easier to put on.

Both kimono and yukata give the wearer a taste of Japan. Although it's possible to dress yourself, professional services are available, too. It's worth creating the opportunity to have a photograph taken or stroll the streets of Tokyo wearing a kimono or yukata.

■ A Different Flavor of Cultural Program: Sake Tasting

Tokyo also has an exceptional variety of local Japanese rice wine brands, better known as "sake." For a real taste of Tokyo enjoy a sake brewery tour with sake tasting in Ome or Higashimurayama, in the western part of Tokyo. The sake brewery Ozawa Shuzo in Ome offers spectacular views of the surrounding mountains and valleys from its beautiful location. Sawanoji, one of their signature brands, is popular for its clean, crisp flavor and refined aroma. Toshimaya Shuzo is another well-known sake brewery in Higashimurayama, established in 1596. Their signature sake Kinkon, which has won numerous awards, is dedicated to Meiji Jingu and Kanda Myojin Shrines as their sacred sake.

5. Useful Links

JAPAN: The Official Guide

Official website of the Japan National Tourism Organization <https://www.japan.travel/en/>

Official Tokyo Travel Guide: Go Tokyo

Official tourism website of the Tokyo Metropolitan Government <https://www.gotokyo.org/en/>

Short Trip Ideas for after Meetings and Events

Ishikawa Rich Culture and Traditions

To Kanazawa Station

- Tokyo Station ▶ Kanazawa Station: 2 h 30 min
(by Kagayaki JR Hokuriku Shinkansen)
- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Komatsu Airport: 1 h
Komatsu Airport ▶ Kanazawa Station: 40 min (by bus)

To Noto Satoyama Airport

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Noto Satoyama Airport: 1 h

Short trip ideas pp. 12-15

Fukuoka Fantastic Local Flavors

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Fukuoka Airport: 1 h 50 min
Fukuoka Airport ▶ Hakata Station: 5 min (by subway)
- Tokyo Station ▶ Hakata Station: 5 h (by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

Short trip ideas pp. 24-27

Okinawa Nature and Unique Culture

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Naha Airport: 2 h 45 min
Naha Airport ▶ Prefectural Office Station: 12 min (by Okinawa Monorail)

Short trip ideas pp. 28-31

Tokyo One of the World's Largest Cities

General Information pp. 2-5

Sapporo Japan's Big Nature

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ New Chitose Airport: 1 h 30 min
New Chitose Airport ▶ Sapporo Station: 37 min (by JR airport rapid train)

Short trip ideas pp. 8-11

Nagoya Technology and Tradition

- Tokyo Station ▶ Nagoya Station: 1 h 40 min
(by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

Short trip ideas pp. 16-19

Kyoto Tradition Meets Innovation

- Tokyo Station ▶ Kyoto Station: 2 h 20 min
(by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

Short trip ideas pp. 20-23

Sapporo

Sapporo boasts all the nature you need to open your mind for fresh ideas.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Sapporo For Individual Travelers

Rich forested mountains, beautiful parks and greenery together with an abundance of activities and delicacies to try, and its renowned beer are what make Japan's Big Nature, Sapporo so unique.

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ New Chitose Airport: 1 h 30 min
- New Chitose Airport ▶ Sapporo Station: 37 min (by JR airport rapid train)

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Sapporo

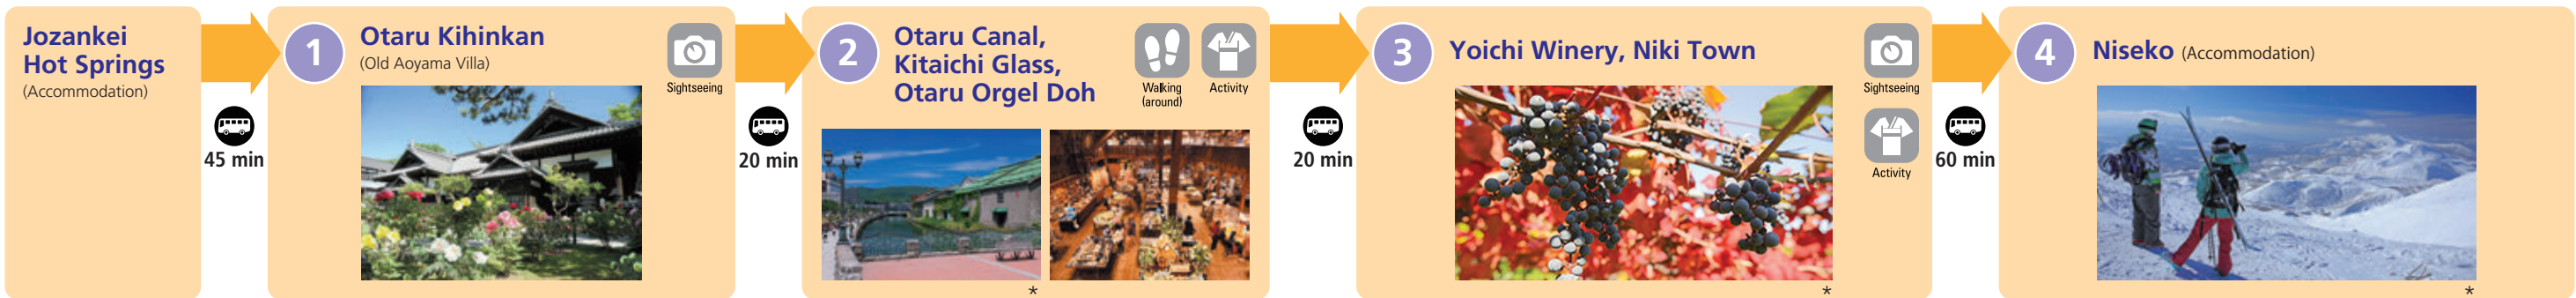

For Groups up to 20

Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

DAY 3

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

Moerenuma Park - Glass Pyramid

This facility, one of the best known among Sapporo's unique art venues, has drawn attention for adopting a snow-based air conditioning system.

Daiwa House PREMIST DOME

Daiwa House PREMIST DOME is not only a home field for a professional soccer team but also a facility with the largest indoor exhibition space in Hokkaido.

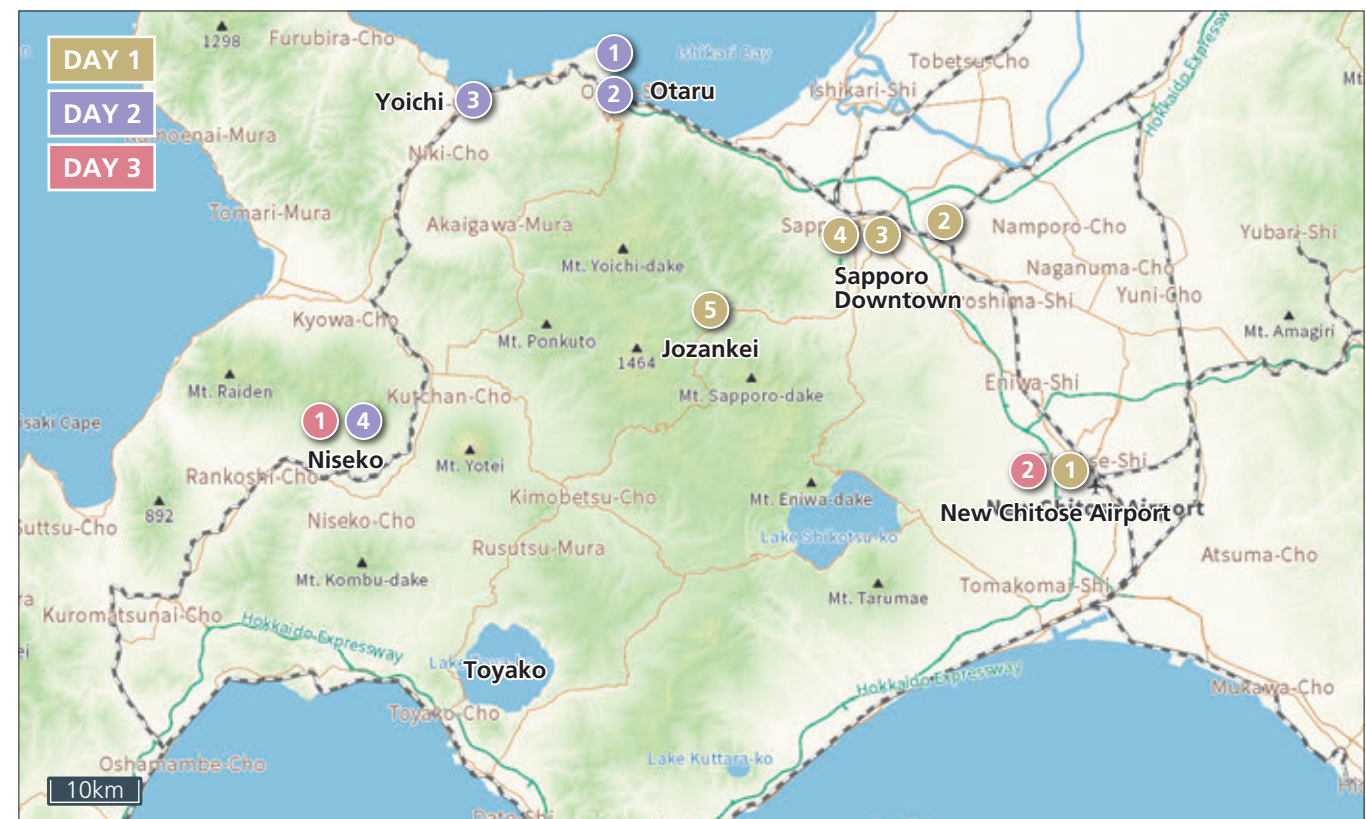

Toya-Usu UNESCO Global Geopark

This member of the UNESCO Global Geopark Network (GGN) offers a fun and educational opportunity to learn the history of the changing Earth and how humans have coexisted with it.

Upopoy National Ainu Museum and Park

Japan's first national museum dedicated to the history and culture of the indigenous Ainu people. It offers interactive exhibitions, performances and workshops in a beautiful natural setting.

©INCREM P CORPORATION

* Provided by imagenavi.
 Provided by The Foundation for Ainu Culture.

Ishikawa

Located along the Sea of Japan at the center of Japan's main island of Honshu, Ishikawa Prefecture is a thriving center for the production of traditional crafts items such as lacquerware and pottery.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Ishikawa

For Individual Travelers

First-time visitors will enjoy tracing the history of Ishikawa Prefecture and coming into contact with culture handed down from the past to the present.

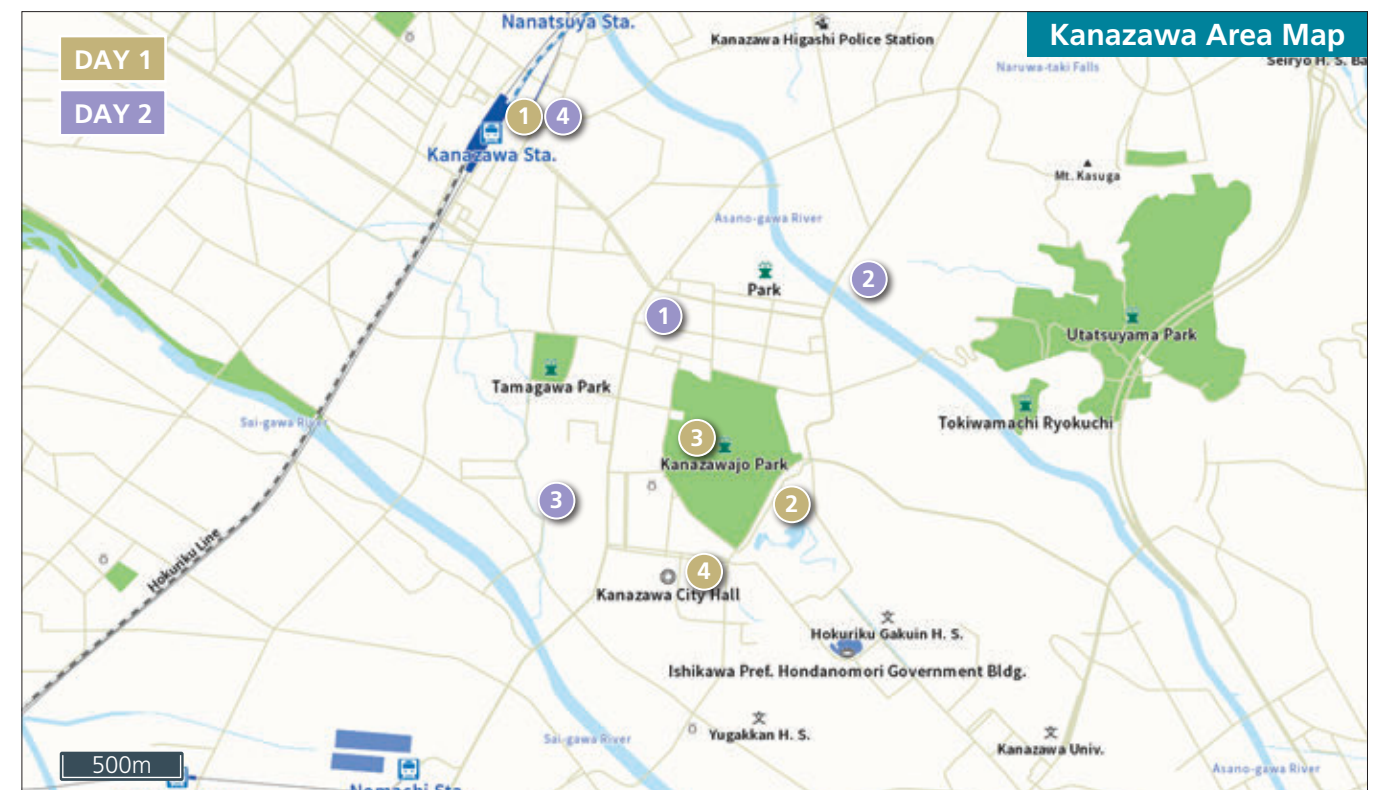

To Kanazawa Station

•Tokyo Station ▶ Kanazawa Station: 2 h 30 min
(by Kagayaki JR Hokuriku Shinkansen)

•Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Komatsu Airport: 1 h
Komatsu Airport ▶ Kanazawa Station: 40 min (by bus)

To Noto Satoyama Airport

•Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶ Noto Satoyama Airport: 1 h

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Ishikawa

For Groups up to 20

First-time visitors will enjoy tracing the history of Ishikawa Prefecture and coming into contact with culture handed down from the past to the present.

Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

1

Kanazawa Station

15 min

2

Kenrokuen Garden

(Beautiful Japanese landscape gardens)

Sightseeing

3

Kanazawa Castle Park & Gyokusen'an Rest House

(Tea ceremony experience)

Sightseeing

Activity

Accommodation (Kanazawa City)

Check-in • Take a rest

4

Higashi Chaya District / Ozashiki Asobi

(Evening entertainment with geisha)

Walking (around)

Activity

Hotel

15 min

DAY 2

Hotel

1

Omi-cho Market

Sightseeing

2

Gold Leaf Pasting Workshop

Activity

3

Naga-machi Samurai District / Nomura-ke Samurai Residence

Sightseeing

Walking (around)

Lunch

4

21st Century Museum of Contemporary Art, Kanazawa

Sightseeing

5

Kaga Onsen

5 min

15 min

10 min

12 min

60 min

DAY 3

1

Kaga Onsen

2

Kakusenkei Gorge/Yuge Kaido Street

Sightseeing

3

Nata-dera Temple

Sightseeing

4

Kutani ware Etsuke (Drawing) Experience

Activity

5

Komatsu Station

20 min

20 min

20 min

10 min

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

Wajima Lacquerware Workshop Tour / Wajima Lacquerware-Making Experience

See for yourself how Wajima-nuri lacquerware, one of Ishikawa Prefecture's world-class traditional crafts, is produced. You can even try your hand at chinkin and makie decorative techniques.

Sake Brewery Tour

Ishikawa Prefecture has all the right conditions for brewing outstanding sake: pure water, a cold climate, and bountiful rice harvests. Visit sake breweries to learn about the brewing process and enjoy a tasting.

D.T. Suzuki Museum

This facility was founded to foster a deeper understanding of Daisetz Suzuki, the Kanazawa-born Buddhist philosopher known to the world as D.T. Suzuki, by conveying his ideas and achievements broadly to people in Japan and around the world. More than just a place for appreciating objects, this is also a place where visitors are free to engage in self-reflection.

Local Cuisine Cooking Class

Learn about the traditional food culture of Ishikawa Prefecture by experiencing how to prepare jibuni, a duck stew that has long been a regional specialty.

Shirayama Hime Jinja Shrine

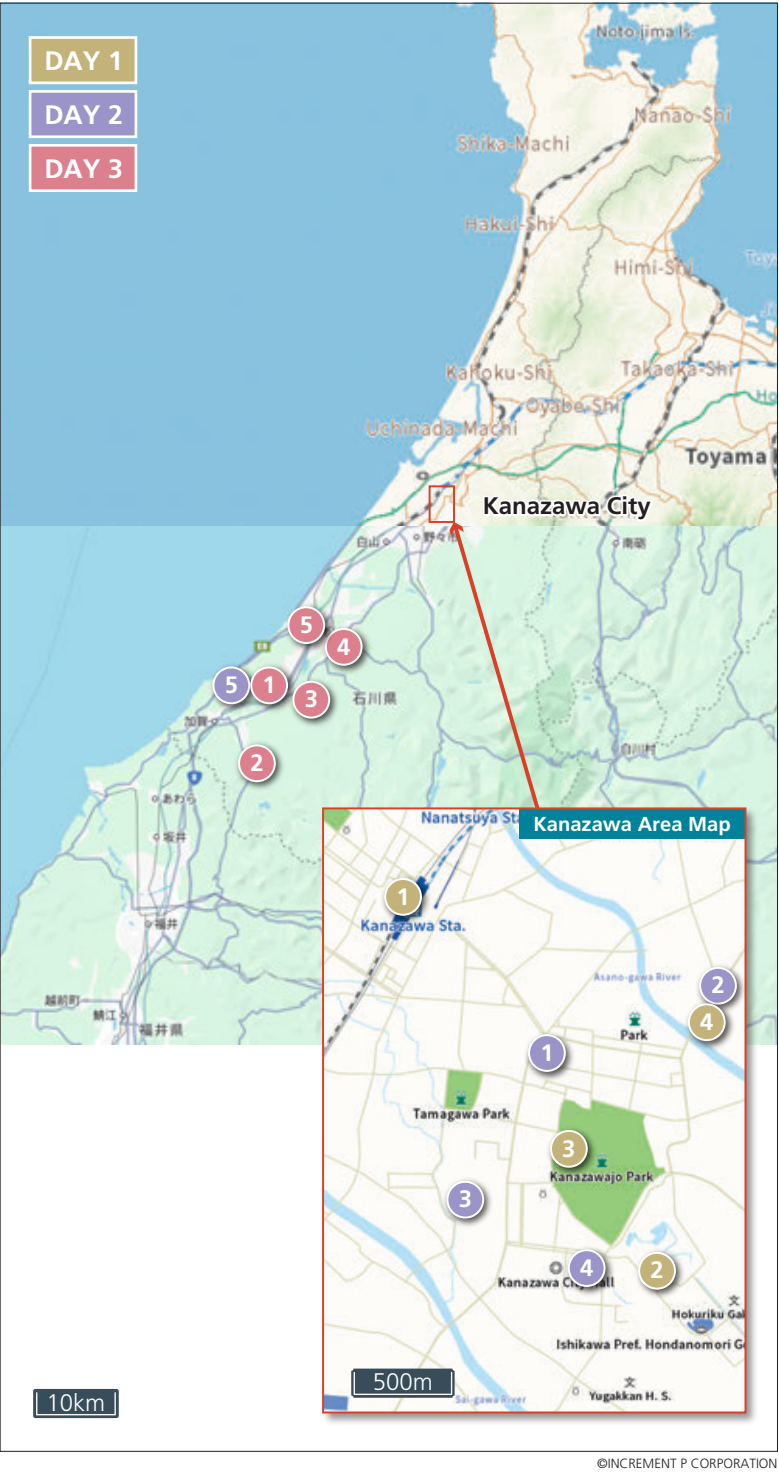

Shirayama Hime Jinja Shrine, which is said to have been built approximately 2,100 years ago, is said to be a shrine dedicated to Mt. Hakusan, one of Japan's three most famous mountains. You can also experience a sense of unity with nature during the misogi experience.

Kutaniyaki Art Museum

Learn about the 360-year history of Kutani-yaki ceramics, an internationally renowned traditional craft born in Kaga, at this museum dedicated to the subject.

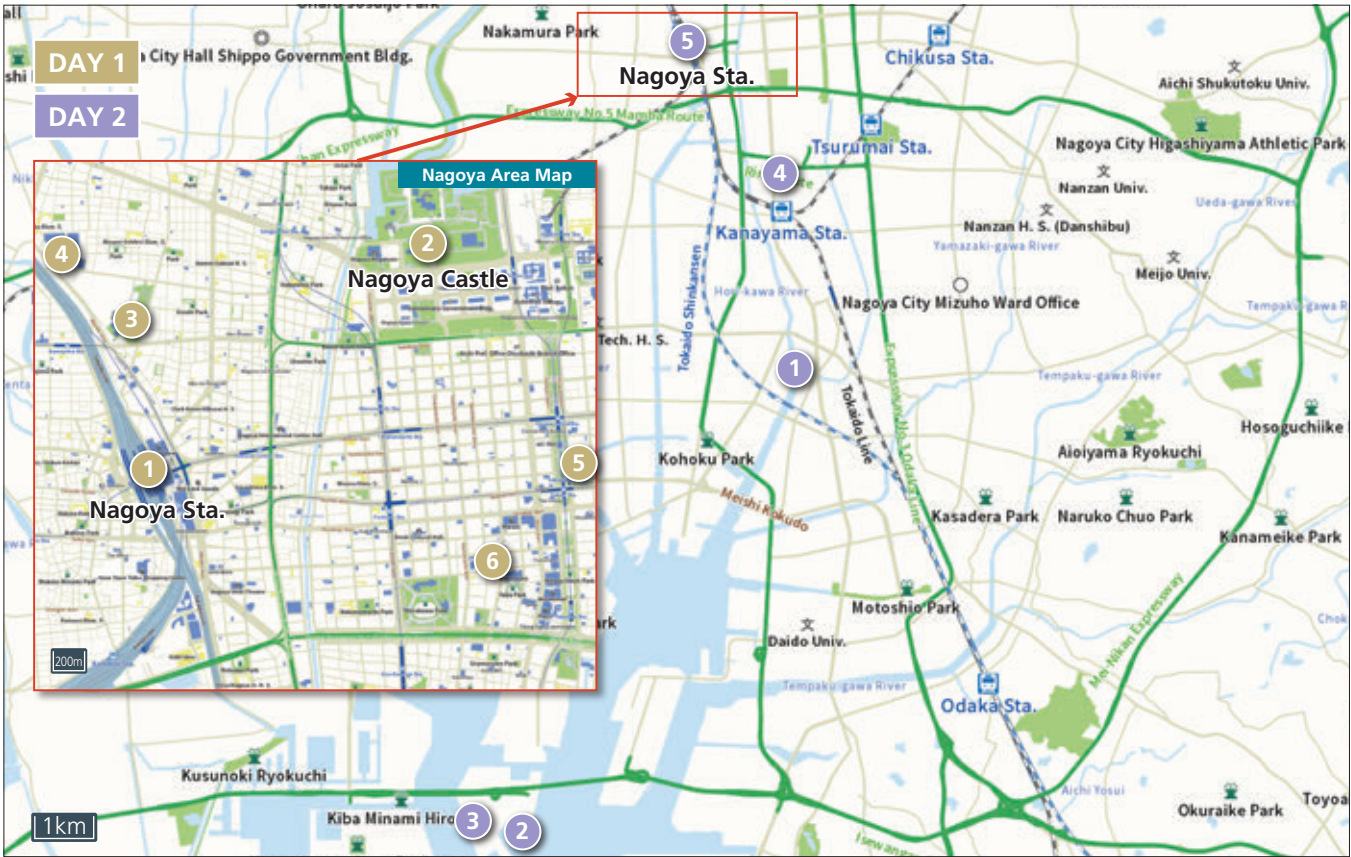

Nagoya

Nagoya, a city built by order of Iyasu Tokugawa from 1610, today is a bustling industrial metropolis that melds rich historical heritages with the latest in hi-tech for you to enjoy all at once.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Nagoya For Individual Travelers

Nagoya offers a variety of discoveries to fascinate you, from famous historic architecture and traditional crafts to the future in cutting-edge technology.

•Tokyo Station ➡ Nagoya Station: 1 h 40 min
(by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

1

Nagoya Station

12 min

+

5 min

2

Nagoya Castle · Hommaru Palace

Castle tower is currently closed due to the wooden restoration project.

Sightseeing

5 min

+

20 min

+

8 min

3

Noritake Garden
(Noritake Museum)

Sightseeing

Lunch

10 min

4

Toyota Commemorative Museum of Industry and Technology

Sightseeing

10 min

+

7 min

+

4 min

5

Oasis 21
(Shopping mall)

Sightseeing

Shopping

15 min

6

Sakae District

Shopping

Dinner

15 min

Hotel

DAY 2

Hotel

10 min

+

10 min

+

9 min

1

Atsuta Jingu Shrine

Sightseeing

5 min

+

50 min

+

3 min

2

SCMAGLEV and Railway Park

Sightseeing

10 min

3

LEGOLAND® Japan Resort

Lunch

Activity

5 min

+

30 min

+

10 min

4

Osu Kannon Temple & Osu Shopping District

Sightseeing

Shopping

10 min

5

Nagoya Station

16 Beyond Tokyo

walk bus taxi train subway

* Provided by Nagoya Castle Administration Office.
 ©2025 The LEGO Group.

17

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Nagoya

For Groups up to 20

Explore Nagoya's deep past through its impressive architecture and works of art from the feudal Sengoku (Warring States) period. And discover in whole how it continues to grow as an industrial center by getting in touch with the various industries it fostered, particularly in traditional crafts.

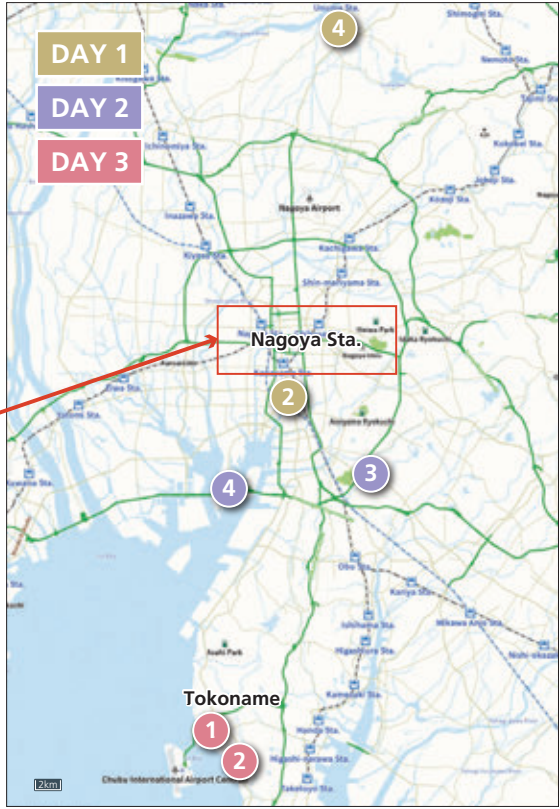

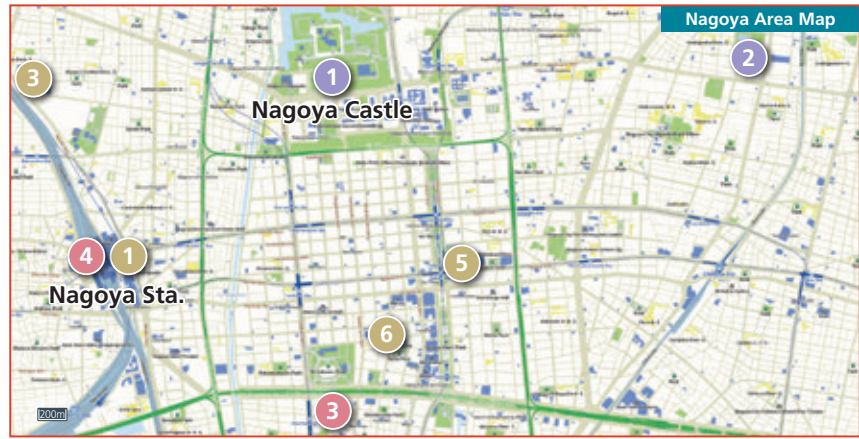

Suggested itinerary

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

| | |
|---|---|
|  Nagoya City Science Museum Nagoya's comprehensive science museum also houses the world's largest planetarium certified by GUINNESS WORLD RECORDS™. It includes a Tornado Lab which artificially creates an air vortex to represent a real tornado. |  The Museum Meiji-Mura Discover the Meiji period culture through its architecture from around Japan at this open-air museum in Inuyama city. |
|  Port of Nagoya Public Aquarium See the best of sea life from the Antarctic to Japan at one of the country's largest aquariums located at the Port of Nagoya. |  The Little World Museum of Man This open-air theme park in Inuyama city displays reconstructions of houses from Japan and around the world. Try on some traditional costumes and enjoy delectable cuisine from around the world. |
|  Toyota Automobile Museum Learn about automotive history since its beginning through the 160 vehicles from around the world exhibited at this museum in Nagakute city. |  Laguna Ten Bosch's Lagunasias A marine resort complex in Gamagori city overlooking beautiful Mikawa Bay includes a fish market for savoring the fresh catch of the day. |
|  Toyokawa Inari (Toyokawa-kaku Myogonji Temple) As one of Japan's Big Three Inari Shrines, this shrine, dedicated to the God of fertility, rice and agriculture, industry and worldly success, receives millions of visitors annually. |  Ghibli Park Ghibli Park, located within Expo 2005 Aichi Commemorative Park in Nagakute city, showcases the world of Studio Ghibli's films which have fascinated fans around the world. Take a stroll through the park and find various ways to enjoy yourself. |

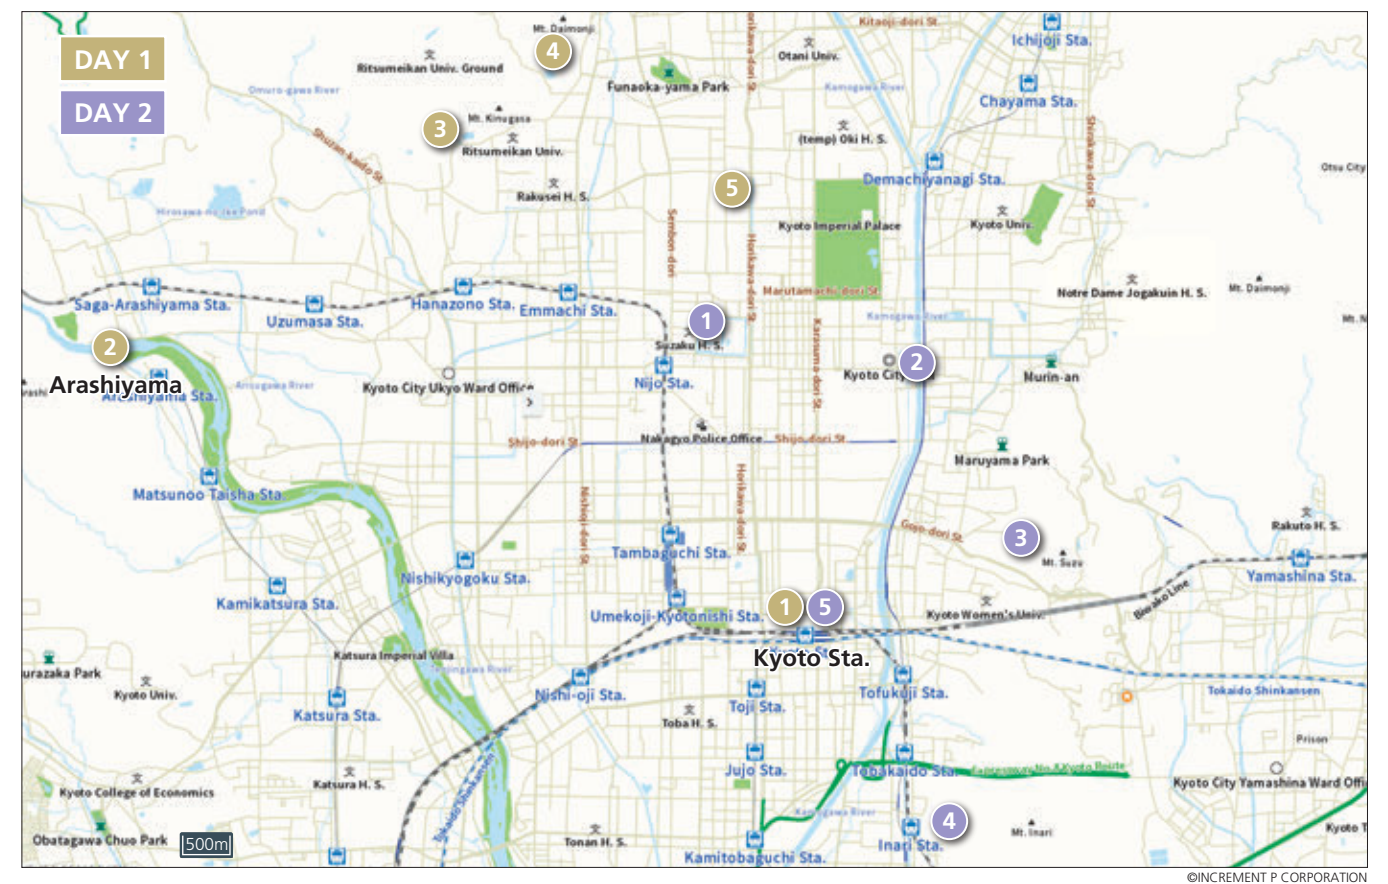

Kyoto

Steeped in history, Kyoto served as Japan's capital for more than 1,000 years. The city has 17 UNESCO World Cultural Heritage Sites and over 200 museums. It is also home to approximately 2,500 Buddhist temples and Shinto shrines.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Kyoto For Individual Travelers

In addition to visiting some of Kyoto's distinctive temples and shrines, you can also explore how craft techniques in the city have changed over time, and see everything from traditional methods to the latest technologies.

• Tokyo Station  Kyoto Station: 2 h 20 min
(by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

1

Kyoto Station

27 min

2

Arashiyama
(Togetsu-kyo Bridge, Tenryu-ji Temple, Bamboo Grove)

 Walking (faround)
 Lunch

3

Ryoan-ji Temple

 10 min

4

Kinkaku-ji Temple
(The Golden Pavilion)

 Sightseeing

5

Nishijin Textile Industrial Association
(Nishijin Textile Center: learn Kimono and its tradition)

 Sightseeing
 Activity
15 min + 5 min

Hotel

 5 min +  20 min

DAY 2

Hotel

 2 min

1

Nijo-jo Castle
Honmaru-goten Palace is currently closed for restoration.

 Sightseeing

2

Shimadzu Foundation Memorial Hall
(Shimadzu Corporation Museum)

 Technical Visit
4 min

3

Kiyomizu-dera Temple

 Lunch
 Sightseeing
10 min + 20 min

4

Fushimi Inari Taisha Shrine

 Sightseeing

5

Kyoto Station

 8 min

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Kyoto

For Groups up to 20

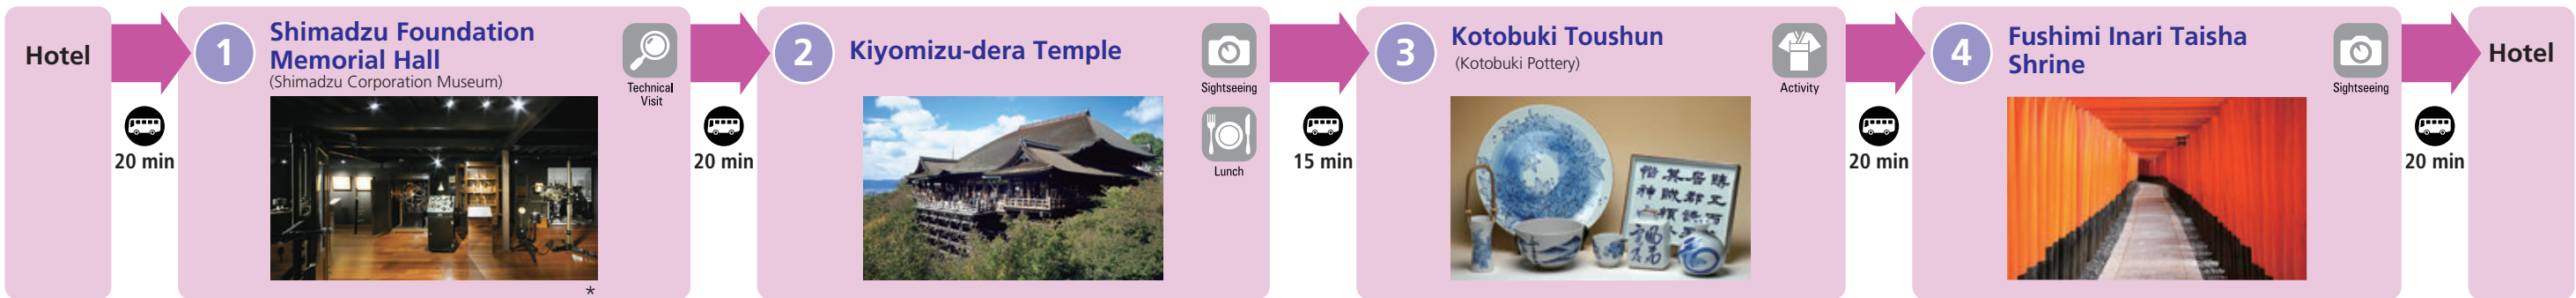

Gain a deeper understanding of history by visiting some of Kyoto's most famous temples and shrines, while also creating memories through experiencing some of Kyoto's traditional crafts and by visiting some of the city's most talked-about museums.

Suggested itinerary

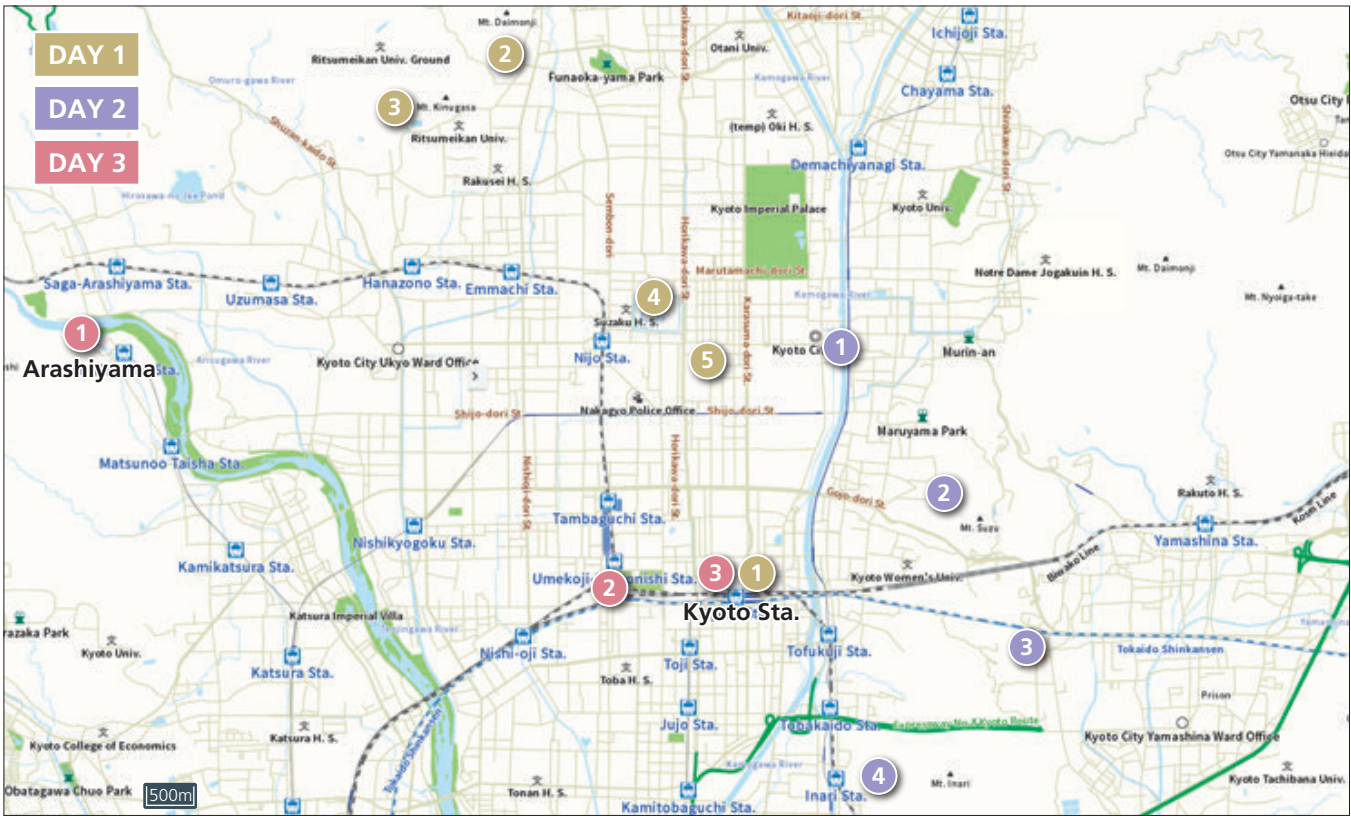

DAY 1

DAY 2

DAY 3

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

Samurai Kembu Theater Traditional Swordplay & Performance
Workshop and performance by a master of the Seiga school of kembu sword dance.

■ For Individual Travelers

Yoroinoya Usagi Juku (Armor workshop)
Observe armor-making and try it on for yourself.

■ Over 20 people accepted

Taizo-in Zen Buddhist Temple in Myoshin-ji Temple District
Experience zazen (seated zen meditation) at one of Kyoto's atmospheric ancient temples.

■ For Individual Travelers or Up to 12 people

Fukujuen Kyoto Flagship Store (Tea company)
Experience tasting authentic powdered Uji green tea either sitting on a tatami mat in the typical Japanese style tea room or at the western style table.
We will offer you a comfortable and relaxing time.

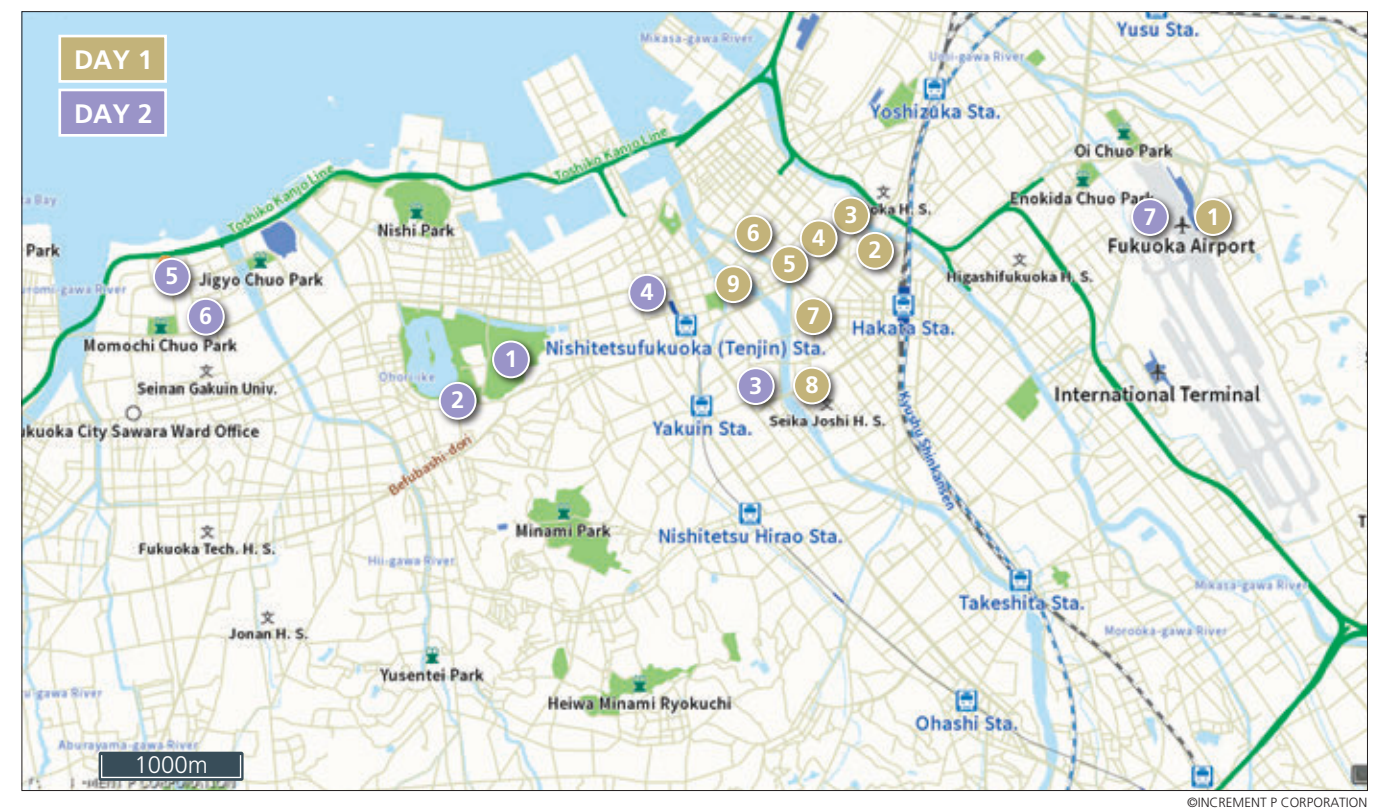

Fukuoka

The largest city in the Kyushu region, Fukuoka is located about 2 hours by plane from Tokyo. Near both the Chinese mainland and the Korean Peninsula, Fukuoka has an ancient history and is making great progress in becoming an international Asian city.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Fukuoka For Individual Travelers

Experience all that Fukuoka has to offer with visits not only to famous historical spots but also to parks, museums, and other facilities where you can learn about local culture and traditions.

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶✈️
Fukuoka Airport: 1 h 50 min
Fukuoka Airport ▶🚆 Hakata Station: 5 min (by subway)
- Tokyo Station ▶🚅
Hakata Station: 5 h (by Nozomi JR Tokaido Shinkansen)

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Fukuoka

For Groups up to 20

To ensure that visitors to Fukuoka enjoy themselves, casual cultural experiences and shopping are included as well as visits to Hakata's famous temples, shrines, and historical spots.

Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

1

Fukuoka Airport

30 min

2

Dazaifu

Lunch

3

Dazaifu Tenmangu Shrine

Sightseeing

10 min

4

Kyushu National Museum

Sightseeing

30 min

5

Haku Haku Museum
(Hakata Food and Culture Museum)

Sightseeing

15 min

Hotel

DAY 2

Hotel

90 min

1

Yanagawa River Cruising

Activity

2

Tachibana Garden
(Traditional Japanese-style garden)

Sightseeing

70 min

3

Fruit Picking in Kurume Region

Activity

60 min

4

CANAL CITY Hakata
(Shopping and entertainment complex)

Sightseeing
Shopping

10 min

Hotel

DAY 3

Hotel

20 min

1

Vegefru Stadium
(Wholesale vegetables and fruits market)

Sightseeing
Breakfast

20 min

Return to Hotel

2

Free Time

Lunch

Enjoy visiting temples and shrines around Hakata area or shopping at Tenjin area and so on.

15 min

3

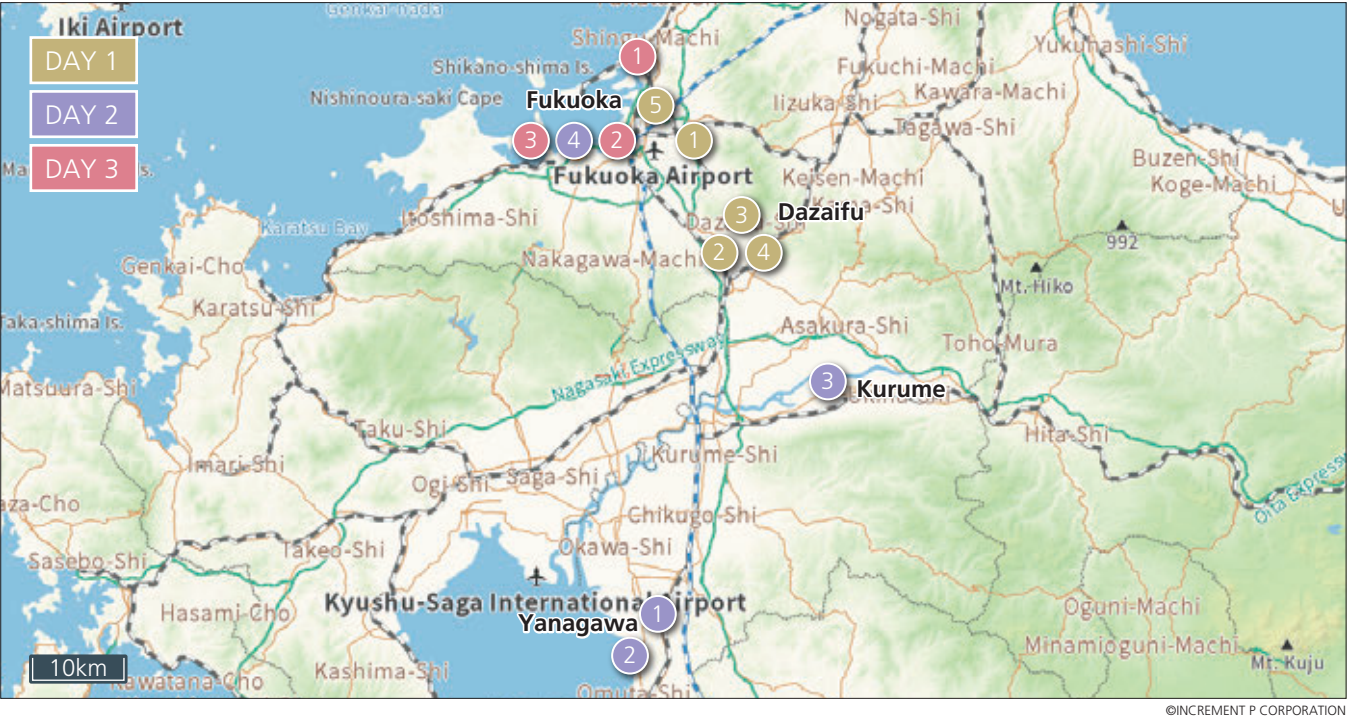

Fukuoka Tower

Sightseeing
Shopping

20 min

4

Fukuoka Airport

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

For Individual Travelers or Up to about 40 persons

Hakata Ningyo Shop Shogetsudo
"Hakata Dolls" are an elegant and subtle traditional craft. Try painting a Hakata doll of your very own.

Ishikura Brewery Hyakunengura (Hakata Hyakunengura)
Hakata's last remaining sake brewery, popular for its Meiji period atmosphere. Explanations of the sake can be provided during tastings. Enjoy lunch or dinner at the brewery restaurant (reservations available for parties of 10 or more).

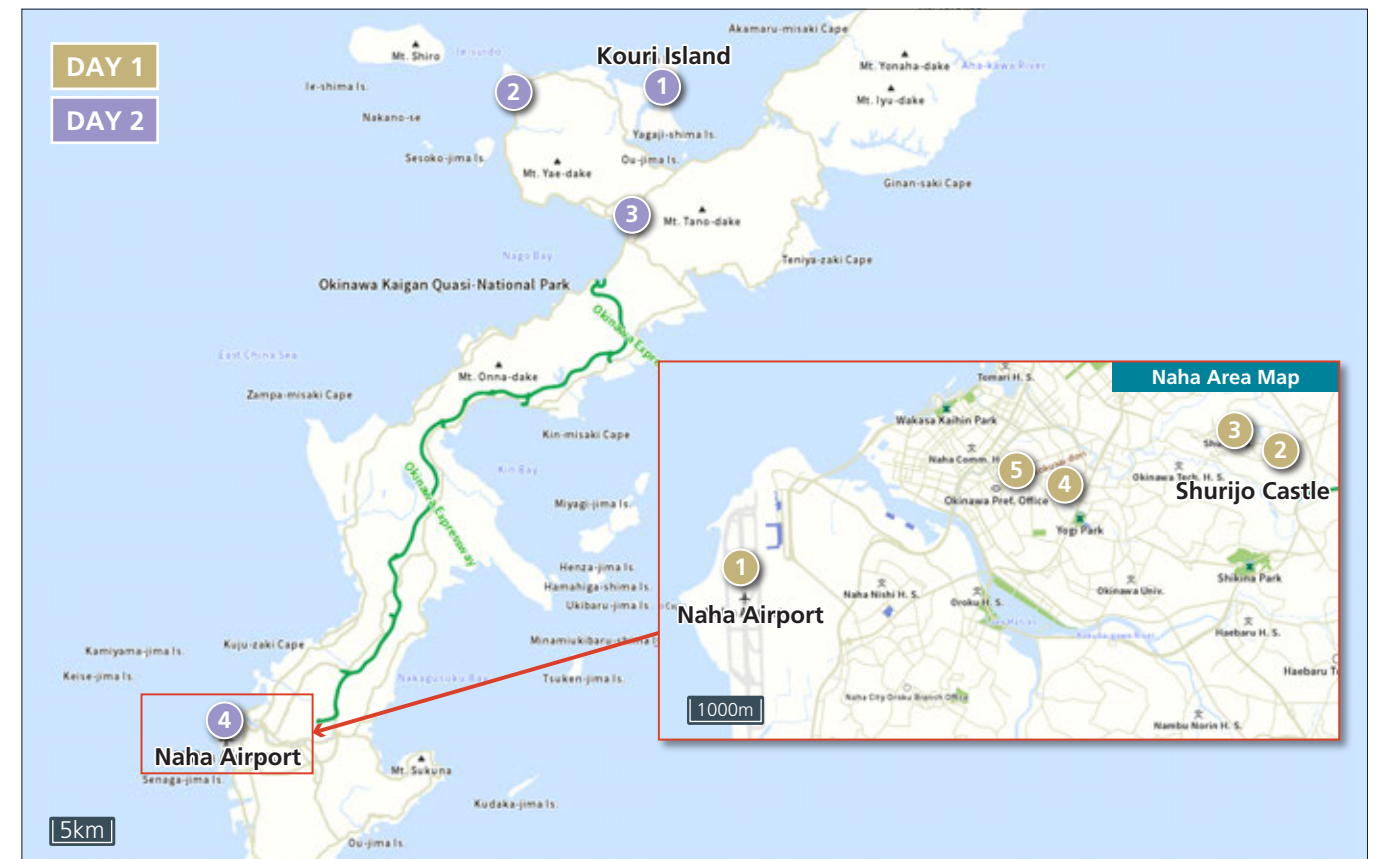

Okinawa

Surrounded by beautiful blue sky and ocean, Okinawa is Japan's tropical paradise which has fostered its own vibrant culture over the centuries. Unique experiences not to be found elsewhere await your arrival.

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Okinawa For Individual Travelers

Stroll and explore the streets, arcades and traditional sites to feel the unique history of Okinawa and friendly atmosphere.

- Tokyo International Airport (Haneda) ▶✈️ Naha Airport: 2 h 45 min
- Naha Airport ▶🚆 Prefectural Office Station: 12 min (by Okinawa Monorail)

■ Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

Itinerary ideas for your trip in Okinawa

For Groups up to 20

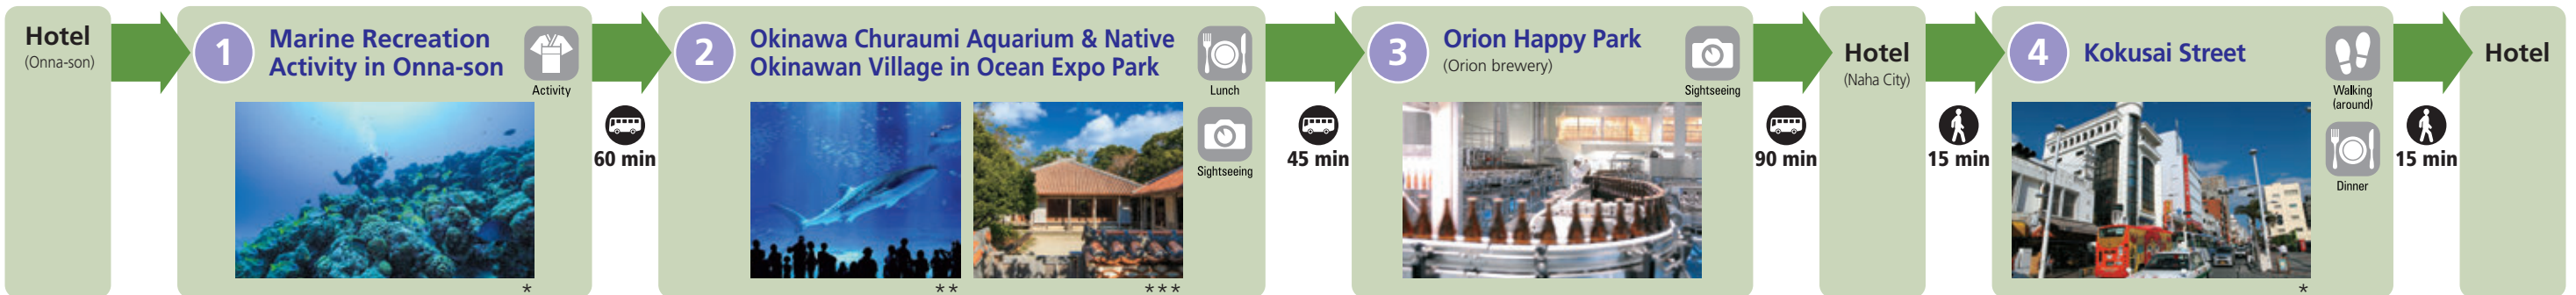

Discover the unique island culture and centuries-old customs through a selection of activities.
The experience will take you away from your daily routine.

Suggested itinerary

DAY 1

DAY 2

DAY 3

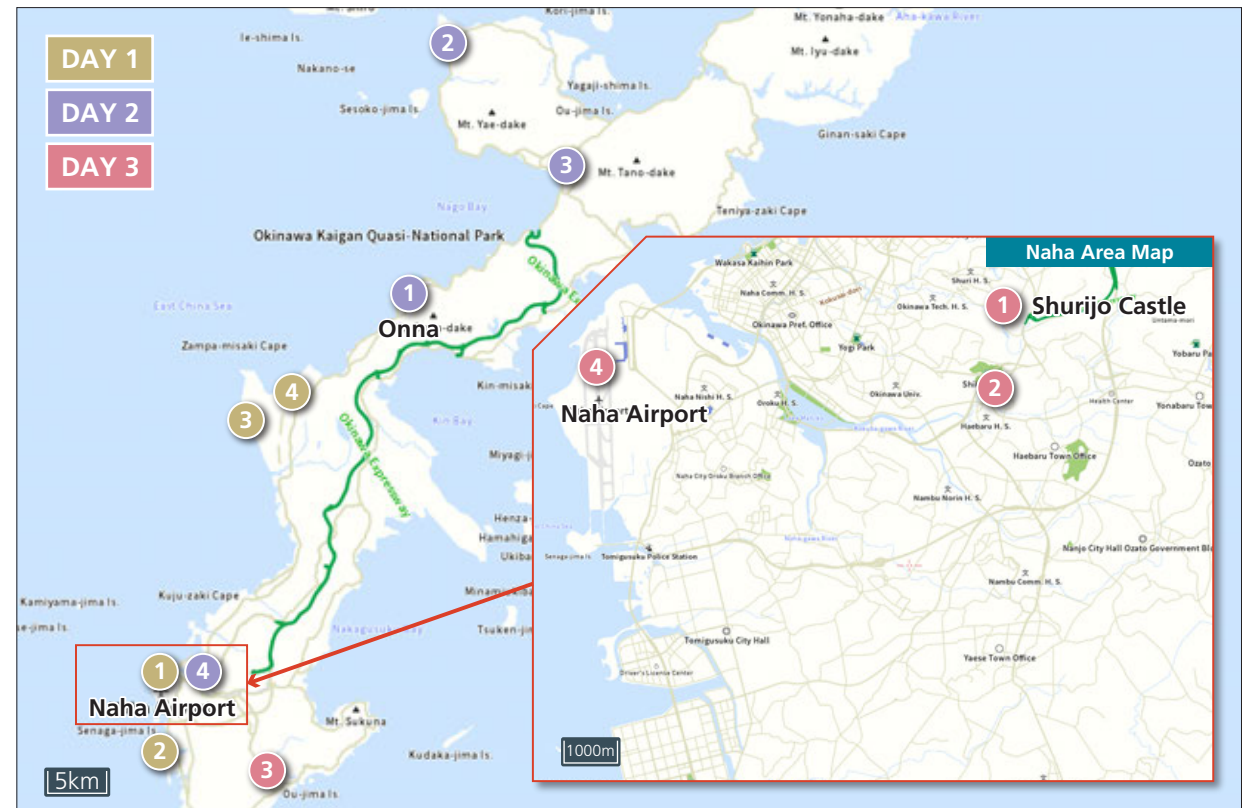

Other options

Other attractive spots not included in the itineraries.

-  Naha Sunset Dinner Cruise
Enjoy an elegant dinner while gazing at the splendid sunset and ocean views on a large ship which departs from Naha port.
-  Okinawa Karate Kaikan (Center)
Experience Okinawa's original martial art of Karate at this new facility opened in Tomigusuku city on March 2017.
-  American Village
This American style shopping and dining resort is located in the Mihama district of Chatan Town. Take in the breathtaking view of the sunset from the adjacent beach at the end of the day.

-  Peace Memorial Park
Peace Memorial Park, located in Itoman city, is dedicated to all who have given their lives in the Battle of Okinawa during World War II. This park's extensive 40-hectare ground includes the Prayer Tower, the Cemetery Garden and The Cornerstones of Peace carved with the names of the 240,000 people who lost their lives during the battle including military and civilians regardless of their nationality.
-  Murasaki Mura Village
With over 30 workshops, this feudal Ryuku dynasty style theme park in Yomitan village lets you enjoy creating traditional crafts as well as Okinawa's culture.
-  Kamimura Distillery
Learn how Okinawa's Awamori is distilled by touring the distillery and learning about its natural ingredients. Tasting is also available.
-  OKINAWA Fruits Land
Discover various exotic fruits, butterflies and birds in a huge greenhouse at this all-weather subtropical theme park in Nago city.

* Provided by OCVB.
 Okinawa Commemorative National Government Park (Ocean Expo Park)/Okinawa Churaumi Aquarium.
 Okinawa Commemorative National Government Park (Ocean Expo Park)

Short trip ideas for after meetings and events

Beyond Tokyo

All information in this booklet is as of August 2025 unless otherwise stated.

Tokyo Convention & Visitors Bureau